News from the Head Teacher

Swimming

Dosbarth Marian enjoyed their first swimming session this week. There will be a swim safe session at the pool for Dosbarth Dolwen and Year 4 children next week. Details have been sent home. If you have any questions, please contact us.

Online content

Following on from last week's newsletter regarding children's online activity and the language they may be exposed to, we have been offered the opportunity to host a parent information session led by North Wales Police's Cyber Unit. The session would provide advice and insight into children's online gaming, the potential risks, and practical steps parents and carers can take to keep children safe online. We are currently gauging interest in a session for parents. A short survey to let us know if you are interested can be found here Parent Information Session: Online Gaming and Digital Safety - Fill in form. If there is sufficient interest, we will go ahead and book the session. We would really value your feedback.

PHW parenting resources

Public Health Wales are delighted to announce that the final two booklets in their national universal parenting information series are now available to be used with families in Wales. The booklets are designed to help families access trusted advice, reduce misinformation, and strengthen Wales's national parenting offer. Take a look at the booklets here:

Age 4 to 7

Other booklets can be found here: Every Child - Health Information for Parents - Public Health Wales

Family Centre

Family life brings many positives, but there are times when extra guidance or reassurance can make a real difference. Conwy Family Centres offer a range of support for parents and carers, from practical advice and drop-in activities to more focused support when needed. Their work helps strengthen families and ensures children are given the best possible start. Further information is available via this link: Conwy Family Life - Conwy County Borough Council

Have a lovely weekend together.

Kind regards, Beth Hughes

Class News

Dosbarth Dulas Meithrin: have enjoyed making bird feeders and looking forward to watching some of the birds come for food in our garden.

Dosbarth Dulas: have been busy learning about odd and even numbers and making bird feeders this week.

Dosbarth Betws: have been looking at the Angel shark this week. A native to North Wales. We will be meeting our scientist to find out more.

Dosbarth Dolwen: have been enjoyed measuring in cm and mm this week. They have also been learning about Jake Davies, a marine biologist who works for Angel Shark Wales. They will be meeting him along with Dosbarth Betws online next week.

Dosbarth Marian: have been writing non-chronological reports on dolphins and retelling the story of Cantre Gwaelod in Welsh. They also really enjoyed their first swimming session.

Dosbarth Elian: have been busy preparing for our Welsh assembly. We wrote poems saying thank you for the rain. We researched dolphins and found out that the orca whale, is actually a dolphin.
