News from Deputy Head

We had a very active week this week that started with members of Dosbarth Elian representing the school at a football tournament. Mrs Lewis was so proud of how they performed and behaved and she is looking forward to entering the school in further sporting activities. Joe Lambe visited us on Thursday to deliver cricket sessions and shared details of various upcoming events.

The teachers went to visit the fantastic facilities at the LCRA this week. We are planning to deliver sports sessions at the MUGA in the Summer term.

I hope to see you all tomorrow for the Easter trail that will be starting outside school from 11am. Don't worry if you haven't bought a ticket, they can be purchased on the day for €1 each. The trail will end at the bowling green where there will be food, cakes and assorted stalls. Some of the children have already promised that they will teach me to play Petanque.

Don't forget our Easter Coffee & Craft morning on Thursday 21st March. To book your free place, please follow the links on ParentPay.

As a school, we will be celebrating Autism Awareness Week on Thursday 21st March, so your child is welcome to come to school wearing colourful clothes to support the rainbow theme.

Have a great weekend,
Bethan Hughes

Class News

Dosbarth Dulas: started looking at the Easter story and made Easter cards. The class were shown how to do correct pencil grip to help them write better, and how to hold scissors correctly.

Dosbarth Y Llan: had fun celebrating Red Nose Day. Miss Jones leaves us today to start her teaching journey. I know that all the children will miss her and we wish her good luck.

Dosbarth Betws: have been busy collecting data using tally charts and making bar graphs on the computer.

Dosbarth Dolwen: have enjoyed swimming this week. Next week will unfortunately be our final session, therefore it will be a controlled fun session. They have been looking at Caesar Shift coding this week, attended a cricket session and taken part in Red Nose Day activities. The majority of the class have also attended the Opera at Venue Cymru.

Dosbarth Marian: have been working hard redrafting their CVs to become MI6 agents this week, we also received our new mission to design the perfect secret agent kit and shared our ideas with the rest of the class. We also enjoyed a great cricket session on Thursday.

Dosbarth Elian: have been busy preparing for writing a spy story. We wrote some interesting sentences and created our own sensory head. In Welsh we wrote about Cardiff and compared Cardiff to Paris.
